Subject: Cybersecurity Landing Page on hologic.com

Purpose

To announce the addition of a new cybersecurity landing page on hologic.com.

Description of Change

The cybersecurity landing page is designed to be a single location on hologic.com where customers can go to obtain all the information related to the security features and functionality of our Breast and Skeletal Health products. As of this announcement customers may now navigate to this landing page using the following URL:

<https://www.hologic.com/support/usa/breast-skeletal-products-cybersecurity>

The landing page can also be accessed by clicking Cybersecurity from the Products page of the website, and via the Technical & Applications Support page.

The landing page is comprised of the following sub-section pages:

Validated Microsoft Monthly Critical Patch Releases

MDS2 Forms

Cybersecurity Reports and Best Practices

Antivirus Installation and Configuration Guides
